

Utility Blended and Feedlot

Job Summary:

New Balance Commodities is the leader in marketing and distributing Co-products throughout the upper Midwest. This person will work in multiple capacities which include: blending custom feed orders, delivering feed to clients, performing tasks related to feeding and caring for feedlot animals, and maintaining equipment.

The Ideal Candidate

The person we will add needs to have the following mindset and thought sequence: "I am interested in thinking ahead to know what I can do today to make operation better tomorrow. I like to operate efficiently while focusing on the details. I like to accomplish tasks and develop relationships with other team members and clients. I don't leave until the job is done."

Job Requirements

Those considering applying for this position must be capable of performing the following tasks:

- Create accurate/timely feed blends from custom recipes using payloaders and feed mixer
- Perform various maintenance on augers, large equipment, etc.
- Operate blended feed delivery trucks, to client locations
- Accurate and timely delivery of rations to feed bunk via feed truck
- Perform beef quality assurance techniques while processing, vaccinating and handling.
- Perform tasks to maintain feedlot, such as: box scrape pens, welding, fixing and/or building fence, mowing, spraying
- Communicate feed mixes and delivery times with clients and carriers
- Work every 3rd weekend and alternate every 3-4 holidays
- Performance increases with variation in day to day schedule
- Desire to grow skills and abilities

Skills & Qualifications

Those considering applying for this position should consider if the following list of skills and qualifications provide a good description of themselves

- Take pride in work
- Forward thinking
- Ability to work on team or alone
- Mechanically minded/skilled
- Driven to maximize daily accomplishments
- Ability to work proactively without supervision
- Have a passion for customer service and building/maintaining client relationships
- Passion for livestock

Education & Experience

- 1-2 years CDL driving experience preferable
- 1-2 years on farm work experience
- Limited computer skills required

If interested, send resume to bhalvorson@nbccoproducts.com